

I believe in and care about democracy which is why I oppose any deregulation of media ownership. Deregulation will lead to media consolidation and monopolies restricting information access for the public. I oppose a vote to relax media ownership rules and urge a vote to retain current rules.